REFERRAL INFORMATION

Who can we thank for your referral?_____

I authorize this office to release any information necessary to my personal/referring physician and insurance company. Should there be a charge, I hereby authorize payment directly to the audiologist/hearing instrument specialist for services provided. I understand that if I have an HMO I am ultimately responsible for obtaining proper referral, and any portion that may not be covered (in or out of network) or paid by my insurance is my responsibility.

Please provide 24 hour notice if cancelling or rescheduling an appointment. The Scholl Center may assess a fee for late cancellations or no-show appointments.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

The Scholl Center

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

The Scholl Center is required by law to maintain the privacy of Protected Health Information ("PHI") and to provide you with this Notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI. PHI is information that may identify you and that relates to your past, present or future physical health condition and related health care services. This Notice describes how we may use and disclose your PHI to carry out treatment, payment, or health care operations and for other specified purposes that are permitted or required by law. This Notice also describes your rights with respect to your PHI.

Your Health Information Rights

You have the following rights with respect to PHI about you:

- You may request a copy of this Notice at any time. To obtain a paper copy, contact us at 3105 S. Harvard Ave, Tulsa, OK 74135.
- You have the right to request additional restrictions on our use or disclosure of your PHI by sending a written request to our Privacy Officer. We are not required to comply with those additional restrictions.
- You have the right to inspect our PHI about you by sending a written request to our Privacy Officer. We may charge a fee for the copying and mailing of your PHI.
- If you feel that the PHI we maintain about you is incomplete or incorrect, you may request that we amend it by sending a written request to our Privacy Officer. If we deny your request, you have the right to file a statement of disagreement.
- You have the right to receive an accounting of the disclosures we have made about your PHI after April 14, 2003 for purposes other than treatment, payment or health care operations by sending a written request to our Privacy Officer. The request must specify a time period that does not exceed six years. This accounting will exclude disclosures made to you or disclosures you authorize.

How We May Use and Disclose PHI

The following are descriptions and examples of ways we may use and disclose PHI:

- We may use or disclose your PHI in order to treat you, obtain payment for services provided to you and conduct our health care operations activities.
- We may use or disclose your PHI to your other health care providers when such PHI is required for them to treat you, receive payment for services they render to you, or conduct health care operations activities.
- We may disclose your PHI to a family member, other relative, a close friend or any other person identified by you when you are present for, or otherwise available prior to, the disclosure.
- We may disclose your PHI to a health oversight agency that oversees the health care system and is charged with the responsibility for ensuring compliance with the rules of government health programs such as Medicare or Medicaid.
- We may disclose your PHI in the course of a judicial or administrative proceeding in response to a legal order or other lawful process.
- We may disclose your PHI to the Police or other law enforcement officials as required or permitted by law or in compliance with a court order or a grand jury of administrative subpoena.
- We may disclose your PHI to a coroner or medical examiner as authorized by law.

- We may disclose your PHI without your consent or authorization if an Institutional Review Board/Privacy Board approves a waiver of authorization for disclosure.
- We may disclose your PHI to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to a person's or the public's health or safety.
- We may disclose your PHI to units of the government with special functions, such as the U.S. military or the U.S. Department of State under certain circumstances required by law.
- We may disclose your PHI as authorized by and to the extent necessary to comply with laws relating to Worker's Compensation or other similar programs.
- We may use and disclose PHI when required to do so by any other law not already referred to in the preceding categories.

Use and Disclosures Requiring Your Written Authorization

The following are examples of the use and disclosure of your PHI that would require your written authorization:

- Disclosures to a life insurance company for coverage purposes.
- Disclosures to an employer for a pre-employment test.
- Disclosures to third parties for marketing purposes.

The written authorization must be in plain language, contain specific instructions about the PHI to be used or disclosed, and identify the person(s) receiving the PHI. You may revoke your authorization at any time, except to the extent that we have acted in reliance upon it, by delivering a written revocation statement to our Privacy Officer.

Effective Date and Duration of This Notice

This notice became effective on April 14, 2003. We may change the terms of this notice at any time. If we change this Notice, we may make the new Notice terms effective for all PHI that we maintain, including any information created or received prior to issuing the new notice. If we change this Notice, we will post the revised Notice in the waiting areas of our practice. You may obtain a copy of any revised Notice by submitting a written request to our Privacy Officer.
